Convocation at Carleton University

The Convocation ceremony (the calling together of the academic assembly) has its roots in university traditions of medieval Europe.

The Mace

The mace is a staff symbolizing authority. In the days of knighthood, it was a weapon, but after the 16th century it became solely a symbol of authority carried by a distinguished member of an assembly. It is used on ceremonial occasions to signify the right of an individual or institution to perform a certain function—in the case of universities, to grant degrees.

At Convocation, the mace is carried ahead of the Chancellor as he enters and leaves each ceremony. (Marshal of Convocation H.H.J. Nesbitt has performed this function for all but one of the University's Convocations.) During the ceremony the mace is displayed on a special stand as an embodiment of the authority of the University.

Carleton's mace was presented to the University in 1976 as a gift from the Chair of the Board of Governors at that time, Mr. Hyman Soloway. It is a silver-plated staff approximately three feet long. At the upper end there is a bowl marked with the University's coat of arms and the University motto in both Latin and English—"Opera Nobis Aeterna" and "Ours the Task Eternal." From the upper portion of the bowl rises a phoenix. Traditional oak leaves surround the lower end of the staff.

Coat of Arms

The coat of arms was presented to the University by His Excellency The Right Honourable Ramon John Hnatyshyn on November 15, 1992 as part of Carleton's 50th anniversary celebrations. It is described in heraldic terms as follows: "Sable a maple leaf Gules irradiated and charged with an open book Argent; And for a Crest: on a wreath Argent Sable and Gules a Phoenix Gules quilled and beaked Or issuing from flames proper; And for a Motto: Ours the Task Eternal; And for Supporters: on a grassy mount on either side a raven Sable beaked and membered or armed Gules."

The open book on the maple leaf signifies that Carleton University is in the nation's capital and that learning is open to all who wish to partake of it. The phoenix, the legendary eternal bird, symbolizes the renewing of learning from older foundations, in recognition of Henry Marshall Tory's role in the founding of the University when he was 82 years old. "Ours the Task Eternal" is taken from a Walt Whitman poem entitled "Pioneers" and ties in with the eternal quality of the phoenix.

And so, the Carleton University coat of arms symbolizes sound learning, good citizenship, and the highest hopes of humanity.

The Diploma

The diploma the graduates receive at Convocation is the certificate of qualification which publishes the fact that the student has fulfilled all the requirements and completed the prescribed course of study for the degree. As the senior academic legislative body of the University, it is the Senate which has determined whether the requirements have been met. The signatures of both the Chancellor and the President of the University appear on the diploma: the Chancellor because of his role in conferring the degree, and the President who, as Chair of Senate, certifies that Senate has enacted the required motion to award the degree. The Seal of the University is affixed to the diploma as a mark of authentication.

Academic Dress

The academic dress of Carleton University results from a compromise between that found in the ancient foundations of Britain and Canada and the American Intercollegiate Code. All three hoods—bachelor's, master's, and doctor's —are of the simple or Oxford shape. The bachelor's hood is made of black stuff; the master's and doctor's are made of black silk and all are lined with silver silk with two chevrons, one of red and one of black. From bachelor's to doctor's, the hoods are progressively longer and opened to show more and more of the lining.

The velvet border of the hoods denotes the degrees granted according to the following colour combinations: architecture is cerise; arts is white; commerce is camel brown; computer science is royal blue; engineering is orange; industrial design is dark cardinal; journalism is white with a black cord sewn slightly in from the lower border; management studies is camel brown with a black cord sewn slightly in from the lower border; music is venetian pink; public administration is peacock blue; science is golden yellow; social work is cream; and doctor of philosophy is purple.

The bachelor's gown, to be worn with the above hoods, is of full length, made of black stuff, with a gathered yoke behind, and long open-fronted sleeves. The master's gown is of full style, made of black silk or rayon, with a full gathered yoke behind, and closed sleeves with an opening at the elbows. The doctoral gown is of the same style as the master's, but made of fine royal blue cloth with facings of light blue silk.

The two shades of blue in the doctoral gown are those of the United Nations, and are meant to recognize the University's long-standing interest, from its earliest years, in international affairs and issues. The colours were chosen when the University awarded its first honorary degree, in 1954, to the second Secretary General of the United Nations, the late Dag Hammarskjöld. The tradition of awarding honorary degrees to Secretaries General of the United Nations has continued since that time.

The gown of the Honorary Doctor of Laws, Literature, Science, Engineering, or Architecture is a full robe with bell-shaped sleeves. It is made of fine royal blue cloth with facings and sleeves in light blue silk. The hood is made of the same material as the gown, has the same lining as that for degrees by examination, and is bordered with dark mauve for the degree of Doctor of Laws; vibrant blue for the degree of Doctor of Literature; red for the degree of Doctor of Science; and orange for the degree of Doctor of Engineering; and cerise for the degree of Doctor of Architecture.

The Presiding Officer of Convocation is the Chancellor of the University, Arthur Kroeger, O.C., M.A., LL.D.

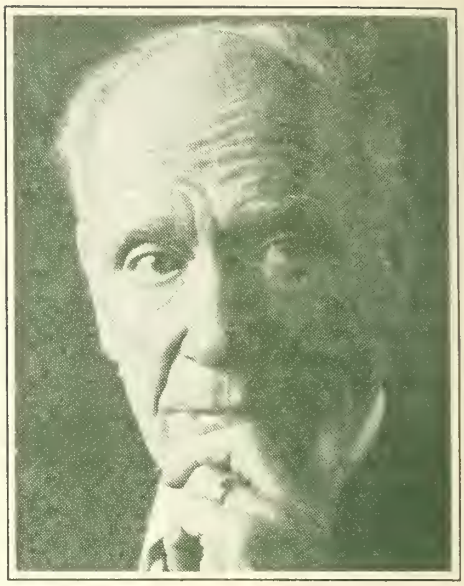
Mitchell W. Sharp, P.C., O.C., B.A., D.Sc.Soc., LL.D.



The Honourable Mitchell W. Sharp, Personal Adviser to the Prime Minister of Canada and former Federal Cabinet Minister, will be awarded the degree of Doctor of Laws, honoris causa, at the morning Convocation ceremony on Sunday, November 20, "in recognition of a distinguished contribution to Canadian life as a public servant and Minister of the Crown who has exemplified the national traits of competence, modesty, and moderation."

Mr. Sharp was born in Winnipeg, Manitoba in May 1911. He received a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Manitoba in 1934. He subsequently undertook graduate studies at the University of Manitoba and the London School of Economics.

In Winnipeg, Mr. Sharp was employed in the grain trade until 1942, when he came to Ottawa as an officer in the Department of Finance. In 1958, he left the public service to become Vice-President of Brazilian Traction, Light and Power Company, a Canadian company with extensive operations in Brazil. At the invitation of the Secretary General of the United Nations, he chaired the International Coffee Conference in New York during the summer of 1962.

In April 1963, Mr. Sharp was elected to the House of Commons for the riding of Toronto Eglinton and appointed Minister of Trade and Commerce in the government of Lester B. Pearson. In December 1965, he became Minister of Finance and Receiver General of Canada. He was appointed Secretary of State for External Affairs in April 1968, and in August 1974, President of the Queen's Privy Council for Canada and Leader of the Government in the House of Commons. He resigned from the Cabinet in 1976 but remained in the House of Commons until May 1, 1978. From May 2, 1978 until June 1, 1988, Mr. Sharp was Commissioner of the Northern Pipeline Agency. Concurrently, from July 1983 to May 1984, he was Co-chair of the Task Force on Conflict of Interest. From 1988 to 1992, Mr. Sharp was a policy associate with Strategico, a firm that deals with trade and economic problems. In 1993, Prime Minister Jean Chrétien invited Mr. Sharp to be his personal adviser on ethics in government, a position he accepted for "a dollar a year."

Mr. Sharp holds three honorary degrees from Canadian universities: a Doctor of Laws from the University of Manitoba (1965); a Doctor of Social Sciences from the University of Ottawa (1970); and a Doctor of Laws from the University of Western Ontario (1977). He was appointed an Officer in the Order of Canada in December 1983.

Alanis Obomsawin, C.M.

Alanis Obomsawin, film producer, director, singer, and recording artist, will be awarded the degree of Doctor of Literature, honoris causa, at the afternoon Convocation ceremony on Sunday, November 20, "in recognition of a distinguished contribution to the arts as a film-maker, singer, and songwriter who has dedicated herself to issues of justice and social change, and to opening a public space for voices which had previously been marginalized and silenced."

Ms Obomsawin was born a member of the Abenaki nation in New Hampshire in 1932 and was raised on the Odanak reserve near Montreal and then later at Trois-Rivières. At a very early age she was committed to the celebration of native tradition and the preservation of its culture.

In the late 1950s Ms Obomsawin began to collect and write songs on Indian and folk themes. In 1960 she made her professional debut as a singer in New York City. Since then, she has toured in Canada, the United States, and Europe performing in universities, museums, prisons and art centres, as well as at folk festivals and for humanitarian causes. In 1988 she released an album entitled "Bush Lady," featuring a mixture of traditional Abenaki songs and many of her own original compositions.

In 1967, Ms Obomsawin began her career as a film-maker with the National Film Board, producing a wide variety of educational and documentary films and audio-visual packages. Among her most important films, many of which have received national and international awards, are: Christmas at Moose Factory (1971); Amisk (1977); Mother of Many Children (1977); Incident at Restigouche (1984); Richard Cardinal: Cry from a Diary of a Métis Child (1986); Poundmaker's Lodge: A Healing Place (1987); and No Address (1988).

Ms Obomsawin serves as a board member of the Canada Council's Native Advisory Committee and is Chair of the Board of Directors of the Native Women's Shelter in Montreal. In April 1991, she was Distinguished Visitor-in-Residence in Carleton University's School of Canadian Studies.

In 1983, Ms Obomsawin was appointed a Member of the Order of Canada.
